PRESIDENT'S UPDATE - January, 2015

As 2015 gets into full gear, your Board of Directors conveys our very best wishes to our FRA community for a prosperous, healthy and happy New Year. We extend a special welcome to our Reconnaissance Marines, MARSOC Marines and Corpsmen returning from deployments and we gratefully acknowledge your continued service and protection of our Nation. We are honored to call you our Brothers. Semper Fidelis!

2014 IN REVIEW

In May, the FRA continued its traditional support to the Recon Challenge event at Camp Pendleton providing financial assistance for the food and beverages for the participants and family members attending. Of particular note was "Team Jarvis" led by MSgt Dave Jarvis. "Team Jarvis" competed in the event by carrying their Recon Brother, Corporal Todd Love throughout the event. It was certainly one of the most inspiring actions I have ever witnessed, and I am honored to have met Todd at the event!

September saw the 2014 FRA Reunion in San Diego along with our traditional West Coast visit to Camp Pendleton. Our members were hosted to an "open house" by 1st Recon Bn., followed by a tour of an HMLA squadron on base. Many FRA participants had the opportunity to climb into the new Marine HUEY and Cobra helicopters that support our troops on the ground. Sincere thanks to all the active duty staff that helped ensure our visit was a memorable experience.

Again, the FRA recognized the Recon Team Leaders of the Year at our annual memorial dinner, and we awarded over $30,000 in scholarships to deserving FRA members and their families.

Finally, 2014 saw the creation of the Force Reconnaissance Foundation, an IRS approved 501c3 charity dedicated to providing charitable support to the Marine Reconnaissance community. This new charity provides our donors with the capability of making tax deductible contributions and gifts and it opens the door to a larger donor community that requires 501c3 status for eligible gifts and grants. I want to thank those members of our FRA community who generously provided the initial donations to the FRF, and I look forward to the continued growth of our new nonprofit charity dedicated to our Reconnaissance Marine community.

2. Support 2015 Recon Challenge: 15 May, 2015
3. Prepare and announce the 2015 FRA Reunion. The Board has approved Washington DC for this year's FRA Reunion venue. Please see MAC's article for further information. Note that the Executive Committee of the Board will be up for election at this year's reunion. This includes President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer. Letter from your Executive Director

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S UPDATE:

I would like to reiterate what our FRA President Al Sniadecki stated regarding our returning MARINES and I personally want to sayWELL DONE MARINES!!!

We always look forward to your safe return from deployments and the pleasant and well deserved reunions with all of your family.

FRA REUNION 2015 PLANNING

Currently, the FRA is making arrangements for our annual reunion. This year the reunion will be hosted in the Washington DC area. As of now, the hotel arrangements have not been solidified. There are many facilities in the Washington DC area available to the Association to choose from, but, as usual, we are looking at keeping the cost of attending the reunion, at a reasonable cost level for our members.

As many of you already know, Washington DC has an abundance of interesting places to visit. I have been working closely with MSgt Bryan MAASS and former SGTMAJ Dick ASHTON to secure some very interest places for our members to explore. Two of those places, are the National Archives and the US Capitol Building.

We are also attempting to acquire tickets for our members to attend the EVENING PARADE, held at the MARINE BARRACKS, 8th and 'I'. The time and dates of the entire reunion will be based on the possibility of acquiring those tickets. As many of our members already know, the last opportunity to attend the annual EVENING PARADE, is usually the third Friday of August each year, after which time those MARINES at 8th and 'I', usually start their national tour. So, tentatively, the dates for the reunion will be announced when I have more information concerning the parade. More information concerning the reunion will be posted as soon as it becomes available. Please make sure that you visit our website, for more pertinent reunion information.

Take care, God bless, and.....

SEMPER FIDELIS!!!!
